COULDN'T HIT THE NAIL ON THE HEAD .-It is reported that at the laying of the last rail on the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad the other day, Mr. B. H. Latrobe, Chief Engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio, was selected to drive one of the last four spikes. Mr. L. seized the sledge and struck boldly at the spike. and it is said took just twenty four blows to drive the spike home—having missed it four-teen times out of twenty four. President Hughart, who was standing by, jocularly remarked that "Mr. L. was unquestionably a good hand to lay out the line of a railroad, but for driving spikes he wasn't a success."

The oldest newspaper man in the world, Mr. Lewis Dexat, died in London, the other day. Sixty-five years ago he was editor of the Morning Chronicle, the great daily organ of the Whigs. After that he conducted the Observer, a leading Sunday paper, for over fifty years. He was born in 1773, and had attained the age of 98. He was a pharagraphist at the age of STARKES DIXIE PLOW. By invitation of Mr. F. C. Williams, of the county of Nottoway, a number of gentlemen assembled at his residence, Saturday, December 10, to test, by practical experiment the comparative value of the Dixie Plow, manufactured by Starke & Co., and any other that might enter the field of competition.

The plows were taken to the field at half-past two o'clock p. m., the following gentlemen acting as judges: F. W. Epes, J. B. Williams, Robert Scott, Jas S. Gilliam, Wm. T. Christian, Richard Epes, Dr. Darring, Sidney Grayes, Walton Sydnor, F. C. Williams, G. N. Senyand I. M. Hutt., Mr. S. Grayes and Walton Sydnor.

the beam of the Dixie right hand broke in two and was haid aside, the contest being narrowed to the Watt left hand and Dixie left hand. The soil first selected was a stubble learn without soil; but as the plows were new, and did not turn in consequence of the roughness of the castings, after a short trial it was decided to take them to another field where the soil was a well trodden, tenacious clay, with a timothy sod covered with vegetation and with straw. The plows here performed their work admirably, cutting and turning cloar without choking.

As the Dixie was a new comer, as the contest

I certify that the above was sent to the Richmond Whig for publication by myself; that I am not acquainted with Mr. Starke; that he had never seen the paper and knew nothing of its contents, and was in no wise a party to the trial of plows alluded to January 7, 1871.

I do not believe in plow trials made by the manufacturers themselves, but hope that every farmer will at once make a full trial of the Dixie with every plow he can find, and buythat which does the best work.
